Local Volleyballers Win Church Title

By Marjorie Hawkins

It's BRAG MONTH at Oakland 4th Ward. Our senior volleyball team represented our region so well it brought home the All-Church winner's trophy. It is on display in the trophy case. We are proud of our brethern who "went all the way."

The M.I.A. and the ward are proud of the fine job done by Clark and Dawn Butler and our 20 young people who went to Stockton to participate in the dance festival.

The bishopric especially is proud of the 15 people who recently completed Project Temple and received their endowments. Sixty-five happy members of the ward joined them in an evening Temple session recently.

The Lincoln and Matthews families have reason for pride too. Bill Lincoln has been elected president of Fremont High School for the coming year and Roger Matthews has been voted in as boy's commissioner.

The Hawkins family is bragging because their daughter Jill directed the winning road show for B.Y.U. Stake. She has been president of Carroll Hall this last year. It was awarded the scholarship trophy as the dorm having the highest grade point average

Education Week Programs Ready

"Programs for Brigham Young University Education week are off the presses and will be available soon," announced Ron Hulme, Education Week chairman for the Oakland District.

"This year's event holds promise of being the best Education Week held yet," he said.

San Leandro will be host stake for the Oakland District of the B.Y.U. Education Week circuit which will include Oakland-Berkeley, Hayward, Walnut Creek, Concord, San Leandro, Napa and Santa Rosa Stakes. Similar programs are being held in San Francisco, Fresno, Sacramento, and other stakes in keeping with the policy of the B.Y.U. Adult Extension Department to reach as many Latter-day Saints as wish to continue to increase the knowledge of "The Art of Living . . . ." theme of this year's seminars.

The event is scheduled for July 29, 30 and 31, at the East Bay Interstake Center and adjoining buildings.

Cost of the three day seminar will be $4.00 for each registration. Persons wishing to avoid inconvenience with registration are urged to enroll now. Checks payable to the B.Y.U. Adult Extension Department may be sent to Chairman Ronald A. Hulme, 1740 Burkhart, San Leandro, California. For information call 357-2104 or 357-7082.

MORMON PAVILION AT NIGHT—Attractive lighting helps the Mormon Pavilion at the New York World's Fair stand out after dark. The religious pavilion, with its golden angel trumpeting atop the 127-foot center spire, is one of the major landmarks at the Fair. Inside, an impressive array of art exhibits tell the story of "Man's Search for Happines"—the Pavilion theme.

Seeing is believing!

If you didn't see it you COULDN'T believe it!

The Northern California and Reno Regional Dance Festival at University of the Pacific stadium, Stockton, the night of Saturday, May 8, was THE MOST—even to an old, broken-down police reporter who didn't even have a child in the show.

The sight of 3,000 MIA-age boys and girls, about equally divided as to sex, moving in beautiful unison with a whole football field as their stage, was awe-inspiring as well as beautiful.

They came from as far south as Fresno, as far east as Reno, and as far north as California goes. From the grand entrance to "Taps" they gave a superb show, assisted by an EmCee of wit and kindness to match his fine microphone voice. (Sorry, kids, you'll have to wait until you can go as a spectator to see how good you really were.)

Thanks are due all who took part, to the unselfish dance directors, to the chaperons, to the parents, the automobile drivers, the costumers — EVERYBODY connected with the spectacle in the most minor way. The audience was large to match the cast. There wasn't any press agent unless, as Mister Wimpy might have said, "I'm him." This spectacle didn't really need one.

Bay Institutes 'Get Acquainted'

President Paul H. Dunn of the First Council of Seventy presided at the Bay Area annual Institute of Religion spring festival, "Getting to Know You," Friday, May 21, in the Palo Alto Stake Center, 1105 Valpariaso, Menlo Park. Five hundred college students and college-age persons attended.

The program comprised "Getting to Know You" fun from 4 to 5:30 p.m.; a smorgasbord dinner and program from 5:30 to 7 p.m.; a worship service from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. featuring President Dunn, and a student testimony meeting; concluding with dancing to a live orchestra from 9:30 to 12 p.m.

Salinas, Beware! SF Has Culture

By Jay Banks

A weekend of culture rewarded efforts of many members of San Francisco Stake. Friday, April 30, the Singing Mothers of the stake presented a concert. With Sister Jean Lauper as director, Jean Glausi, Donna Burdette, and Mabel George as accompanists, the chorus sang songs of joy and pleasure. Among those featured were "It's a Big, Wide, Wonderful World" and numbers from Kismet and Sundown. The final number was a medley of three patriotic hymns with Marion Redd, literature leader for the stake Relief Society and a retired professor of literature and speech, as reader.

Highlighting the evening were songs of the road by Steve Luke, Eddie Krieger, and Noel Luke, three L.D.S. men who call themselves the Spectacles. Another feature was the solos of Dale Blackburn, professional music teacher.

The following evening, May 1, the San Francisco Stake M.I.A. presented "May Rythums," the traditional dance festival. The program was molded around a script by Samuel Chandler, high councilman. Elder Chandler and Jonas Heaton served as readers. Solo dances were performed by Brother and Sister Ellis Mecham; others by the ward and stake dance leaders. Songs by the San Francisco Ward women's quartet and the piano solos of Bishop Don Grimes added to the evening.

The following evening, Sunday, May 2, the Primary in each ward closed the week-end of culture with their annual Primary family hour. The entire membership of the various Primaries took part.

Apostle Seeks Lamanite Center

By Eva Newton

"This is the day of the Lamanites" proclaimed an apostle of the Lord in a meeting with leaders of three San Francisco Bay area stakes. Apostle Spencer W. Kimball said that there are nearly 20,000 descendants of the prophet Lehi in the bay area, the largest Indian relocation center of the kind in the nation.

A site is being sought as a center for all American Indians in the area. Ultimately 200 to 300 saints will be called to serve in a multiple-facet fellowship and educational program. All members are invited to offer a hand of friendship to our Lamanite brethren and sisters.

A proclamation given through Joseph the Prophet at Nauvoo, Illinois, January 19, 1841, in part reads: "The sons and daughters of Zion will soon be required to devote a portion of their time in instructing the children of the forest; for they must be educated and instructed in all the arts of civil life, as well as in the Gospel."

Members of the committee for the Indian project meeting at the Inter-Stake Center May 14th with Brother Kimball were Presidents Ream, Jackson and Ostler of San Leandro Stake, President Elmo Smith of Oakland-Berkeley Stake, President Allen of the Northern California Mission, President Francis Winkel of Hayward Stake, D. L. Mahoney, U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs, and Brother and Sister Herbert R. Newton of Hayward Stake.

Those who have referrals or special interest are invited to call Brother and Sister Newton at 581-6097.

He will be succeeded as first counselor by Orval L. Ostler, a Castro Valley contractor.

Jackson attended George Washington University in Washington, D.C., and Oakland Law College. He lives at 992 Collier Drive, San Leandro, with his wife, Verna, and their three children.

Plan Now For Education Week—July 29, 30, 31

'Double Header' On Temple Hill Series July 4 Schedule

By Frances S. Benians

For July we have two artists for the Temple Hill organ concerts.

The concert will be held on July 4, and there will be no admission charge.

The first artist will be Paul Danilewski, Jr., winner of the 1964 Young Organists' Competition, S.F. Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Paul was just graduated from high school. For several years he has studied with Harold Mueller, F.A.G.O., of San Francisco. He has used his talent in both organ and conducting choirs. His father, a well-known piano teacher of San Francisco, tells the story of Paul in junior high. He was anxious to know the organ, but his father planned a piano future for him. Paul would go out for a ride on his bicycle with his piano music hidden under his shirt or sweater, and find his way to an organist friend's instrument where he would spend hours putting his piano music to organ treatment. When his father saw that he was determined to have organ playing then and there, he threw up his hands and let him go. Paul has never stopped since then.

The second artist on the program will be Richard Gehrke, 20, just returned from a year's study in Minnesota with his God-father—a professional organist. There he practiced 9 hours a day. Richard's father is Hugo Gehrke, head of the organ department at Concordia College of Oakland. Richard has been heard in the Berkeley Junior Bach Festival.

Nex year we plan to ask one or both to play a full-length recital on the regual Temple Hill Organ Concert series.

BYU Body Challenges Recent Book

By Jackie Burt

In view of the fact that a recent book entitled "He Walked the Americas" is being purchased in large quanties by well-meaning, knowledge-seeking Mormons, it is timely to present the opinion of the Brigham Young University Archaeological Society regarding the worth of this book. The following coments are from the April Newsletter of the Society:

"It is hard to know whether the author (L. Taylor Hansen) is trying his hand at fiction or writing with tongue in cheek. . . . his ignorance of Indian culture and history is almost complete. One detects the workings of an active imagination and little else . . .

Newark Ward

By Barbara Hoskin

Elders of Newark Ward have a building fund project—the origination and sale of a ward birthday calendar to list members under their birth dates. The calendar will contain a picture of the Oakland Temple. Ed Pittson, quorum president, reports that sales are going well.

A successful building fund dinner was held in May, sponsored by the ward finance committee of which Myrl Lindsey is chairman.

Birne Feuerstein has replaced George Eldredge as ward clerk. George and wife Pat, former Relief Society president, are moving from the ward.

"Lift Up Your Voice and Sing," the Primary program, was held last month at Sacrament meeting. Lorraine Connelly, 2d counselor in the Primary, was narrator. The program was highlighted by readings by Dan Hanson and Debbie Peterson. Debbie Morgan and her dad Charles sang "Oh, How Lovely Was The Morning."

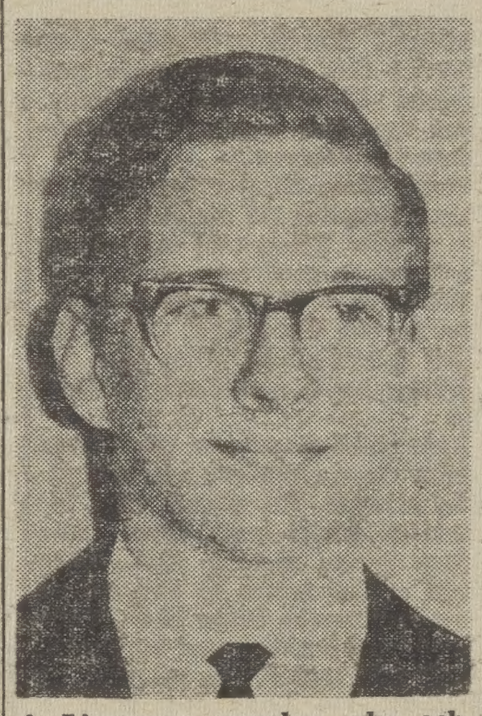
Fashion Shows Held Jointly

By Ruby B. Ostler

San Leandro 1st and 2d wards held their annual combined fashion show and luncheon Wednesday May 12 in the cultural hall. Beautiful decorations in a May day theme, 26 lovely models who wore their own handmade clothes, an outstanding performance by sister Doris Hansen as commentator, music and special entertainment during intermission, all contributed to the enjoyment of a large crowd. After the show many kinds of salads were served at the luncheon bar.

Relief Society sisters were pleasantly surprised to have as a guest Elder Donald Urish, who had just returned from the Brazilian mission the day before.



A Livermore member who achieved the high standards set forth to earn the Duty to God Award is ROBERT RUFF, Livermore High sophmore.

..Bob is a Life Scout, and has put his Scouting emphasis on hiking, having also won the 50-miler award for a 50 mile backpack trip Brother Jim and Sister Eileen in the Sierras. He is the son of Ruff, long-time members of the Livermore Ward, soon to move to Pleasant Hill 2d Ward.

Monthly Dinners Swell Building, Welfare Funds

By Mel Venturi

Monthly dinners are sponsored by different organizations of Hayward 2d Ward for our building fund project. The dinner this month will be sponsored by the Sunday School, and will offer ham. Entertainment will be given by a square dance group. Dinners sponsored by other organizations were a Chinese dinner, Mexican dinner, spaghetti and meat ball dinner, a taco dinner. All have added substantially to the building fund. Some proceeds also went to the welfare fund.

Relief Society rummage sale, June 12, will be held at the I.D.E.S. Hall in Hayward.

Betty and Charles Stewart will be leaving early in June for their new home in Ohio. We wish them happiness in their new venture.

Our Ward catered for a dinner for one of the Centerville Wards recently and cleared $300 for the building fund.

Mutual Marrieds fireside was held at the home of John and Loretta Starkweather in May. John was the speaker. Refreshments were served.

Sister Gene Hunter has been in Kaiser Hospital for major surgery, but is now home and is well on the road to recovery.

We have two full-time missionaries in our ward now, and three stake missionaries. They are all working hard and doing a good job.

Elder McCain of our ward is in Santa Cruz, Mexico, on a full-time mission. He writes that his work is going well there. The elders there, in one spot, were given a few hours to get out of town and never come back. They stayed and nothing has happened. They are making a number of converts. He has been gone a year already.

Bob Bird Jr. and Keawe Tafua have been chosen from our ward to go to the Explorer conference at Brigham Young University one week this summer.

Our ward food club, designed to make money for our building fund, is doing well. A check for $378.00 was presented to the bishop for the month of April.

Claremont Ward

One Family Has Three Missionaries

By Betty Moss

Missionary farewell for Bill Owen will be held at 5 o'clock June 20 in Claremont Ward. Bill has been called to the Austrian Mission. His parents, Glenda and Don Owen, have another son Gary on a mission in Germany. Don, father of the boys, is filling a stake mission.

Thanks are due Gene Fox, chairman, and others members who worked on the welfare carnival. The activity netted close to $400 and provided an enjoyable evening for the ward.

We shall be losing several families this summer. Gay and Dan Sanders will be moving to Texas to continue Dan's medical work.

Laurel and Dave Ferrel will be moving to Michigan where Dave has accepted a position with Ford Motor Company. He will soon complete his master's degree in business.

Sue and Stan Corbridge will be leaving us to return to school at the "Y".

Joan and Dave Byrens recently became parents of their third child—a girl.

Fred Edvalson and Wyatt Ribarich will graduate from Seminary this June. Nancy Owen and Paul Barry will receive honorary fourth year certificates for Seminary attendance. Graduation ceremonies will be June 6 at Berkeley Ward. We appreciate the fine work that Bonner Ritchie has done with the Seminary this year.

Fashion Show Includes Husbands (As Watchers)

By Valiere M. Brunner

A spring fashion show was presented by the Relief Society sisters. Refreshments were donated by them, and a welcome included husbands and friends for all to view the articles they had sewn, knitted, and quilted. Book reviews, luncheons, and the lessons are planned for all to gain from.

Highlights of the Sacrament meetings have been the talks from the young people. The Aaronic Priesthood anniversary was observed with discussion by young men and women on how the Priesthood affects their homes and lives. Also the returned missionary's talks and the music presented by members were enjoyed.

Mothers' Day program included presentation of flowers to the honored guests. The Junior Sunday School gave several musical numbers, and the talks on the joy of being a mother were outstanding.

Missionary parents report that the work their sons are doing is gratifying. All the missionaries are busy with their contacts. From tapes they have sent home we have been able to understand how devoted they are to their work.

Mission Ward

Polynesian Girl Receives MIA Post

By Leonard W. Cryer

MISS LUTOLO FAU, only woman in Mission Ward to serve a full-time mission and one of the ward's few Polynesian members, is the new activities counselor in the Young Woman's Mutual. Her hobbies of singing and dancing and her experience as an entertainer in Church parties and fund raising events, make her unusually well-qualified for her new calling.

Born to Church members, Tufa and Lola Fau in Western Samoa, she is the fourth youngest of twelve children and a graduate of a Catholic school in Samoa. In 1955 she came to the United States lived in Stockton and was active in her ward as historian in the Seminary, speech director in MIA, and teacher in Sunday School. She became a Golden Gleaner June 28, 1959.

Called to serve a full-time Mission in May, 1960, she was sent to her homeland, where she labored two years in the Western Samoan Mission. On her release July 12, 1962, she came to San Francisco and became a member of Mission Ward in August. She was a teacher in the MIA before her new calling, and continues to teach in the Sunday School.

Three new convert members have been welcomed into the ward Mrs. Ruth E. San ford on April 24 and Lemmie E. Brown and wife Dorothy on May 8.

Edward P. Henshaw, Jr., Patricia A. Sullivan, and James Thomsen, from Mission Ward, participated in the stake dance festival May 1 and the regional dance festival at Stockton May 8.

The deacon's quorum welcomed a new member on April 18, 1965. He is David A. Fraidenburg, 12 year old son of Mrs. Panela N. Totten.

Donald Thomsen, James Thomsen, and Michael Yost received certificates of award for 1964 Aaronic Priesthood activities at the fathers and sons banquet, April 22. Twenty two members turned out for this event.

Former ward member David Dawson, 25, married non-member Diane Kristofferson of Colma May 5. He is the son of ward member Mrs. Barbara Zayac, and the nephew of President David W. Alger, 1st counselor in San Francisco Stake presidency. The newlyweds will reside in Broadmoor, near Daly City.

Lois Mae Platt, 19, married Raymond L. Garton in a Nevada ceremony May 22. A convert member in January, she is the daughter of ward member Ray G. Platt and step-daughter of Leonie Platt of the YWMIA presidency.

Former ward members, Donald and Jette Laws became parents of a nine pound baby girl, Anna Marie April 20. The grandmother Eleanor Laws, YWMIA president, now has her 11th grandchild, and eighth granddaughter. Donald served a full-time mission when he was in Mission Ward.

Ardith Yost is the new chorister in the Primary. The Primary also has a new teacher, Phyllis Jackson, daughter of Marjorie Jackson.

A boy was born to Richard and Dorothy G. Vitalie on March 27.

Two Hayward Girls Called On Missions

President David O. McKay called two young sisters from Hayward Ward into the mission field this month. JUDY SHUMATE (l.) and BARBARA LaPRAY (r.) will be in the mission home in Salt Lake City the week of June 21 before leaving for opposite sides of the world for their missionary labors. Barbara will go to the French East Mission, with headquarters at Geneva, Switzerland, while Judy travels to Tokyo to the Northern Far East Mission.

Both are graduates of Hayward High School and Brigham Young University. Both are elementary school teachers, Barbara in Fremont, and Judy in Orem, Utah. Both have older brothers who have filled missions and both have brothers now on missions.

A farewell testimonial was given for Delroy Louis Craw at Balboa Second Ward May 9. He is the son of Brother and Sister Delroy Lamond Craw. Elder Craw has been called to serve in Argentina. He is one of five to serve in the missionary field at the present time.

Two LDS women have been honored by election to the presidencies of the two Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association's Women's Auxiliaries. MELBA PRIDAY, (l.) president of District I, is the wife of Dr. Sidney Priday, mother of five, and a member of Oakland Ward.

GLENNA STEPHENS (r.), president of District II, is the wife of Dr. George Sylvan Stephens. They have two daughters and are members of Castro Valley 2d Ward.

The two districts of the Women's Auxiliary, Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association, have a membership of more than 800.

May Honors Month For Young People

By Boots Barrus & Thora Astle

Last month was a month of honors for the young people of our ward. Of particular interest was the awarding of Duty to God awards Saturday, May 16, to Nelson Astle and Steven Johnson. Brother Astle, a junior at Pacifica High School and a member of the track team, intends to continue his education at Brigham Young University. Brother Johnson, a junior at Pittsburg High School, is a member of the football team. The boys, friends of long standing, have been active in ward affairs, both are Eagle Scouts, and both sing with a quartet of Eagle Scouts that has had wide acceptance in the Stake.

At this year's Science Fair at Riverview Intermediate School Joanne Campbell received the top rating in her exhibit on tooth decay. Her exhibit was termed by the judges best in the entire show. The exhibit was made up of charts showing how a tooth decays, with notes to explain the pictures. Joanne said the reason she decided on this project was her desire to find out why she got cavities in her teeth.
